

Laura Kupe is a multilingual attorney and national security professional with over 10 years of experience spanning roles at the Department of Defense (DoD), Department of Homeland Security (DHS), Congress, and the White House.

Most recently, she served as a Senior Advisor to the former Deputy Secretary of Defense Kathleen Hicks in the Biden-Harris Administration. During her time at DoD, she also held roles in the Pentagon's Russia/Ukraine and homeland defense offices. Previously, Laura served as Counsel on the Committee on Homeland Security in the House of Representatives and as a policy analyst at the RAND Corporation. Laura is also a former Obama presidential appointee, having served at DHS and the White House.

Born in Germany to Congolese parents and raised both in Luxembourg and the U.S., Laura speaks German, French, and Luxembourgish. She is also a co-founder of Congolese Diaspora Impact Strategies LLC, which has successfully hosted programming focused on the Congolese diaspora, philanthropy, and business opportunities in the Democratic Republic of Congo. She is a graduate of the University of Michigan and University of Michigan Law School.

LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/laura-kupe-89b56439/>