

Allen Morris (he/they) serves as the Director of Policy at the National LGBTQ Task Force, leading national strategies to advance equity through legislative and administrative advocacy. Before joining the Task Force, he built and led the first policy team at Texas's largest immigration nonprofit, advancing reforms that strengthened immigrant communities. He holds an M.A. in International Law and Human Rights and a B.A. in Political Science, with more than a decade of experience spanning public policy, immigration reform, criminal justice, and human rights across multiple sectors. Beginning his career in Houston, he credits his grandmother for shaping his values of dignity and hard work. Allen is recognized as a dedicated advocate whose work has been featured in major national outlets.
