

Monica Mitchell serves as Chief of Staff at the Joint Center for Political and Economic Studies, America's Black think tank, providing strategic leadership for its research agenda, program initiatives, and operational excellence. She brings 20+ years of experience in banking, community and economic development, social impact strategy, and philanthropic leadership. She previously served as Senior VP, Chief of Staff, and Executive Director of National Strategic Programs for the Wells Fargo Foundation. She is the founder and Board President of the Lillie May Carroll Jackson Middle School in Baltimore City, a board member of the Eddie and C. Sylvia Brown Family Foundation, and served on Baltimore Mayor Brandon Scott's 2020 transition team. Monica was appointed to the Maryland Affordable Housing Trust Board in 2024 and serves as a Baltimore City Commissioner. Monica holds a Master's of Liberal Arts in Management, and a Certificate in Nonprofit Management from Harvard University, a Bachelor's in Business Administration from the University of Maryland, and completed the Executive Leadership Program at UCLA's Anderson School of Management.

LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/company/jointcenter/>